

The D.A.N.G.E.R. Report

The Definitive Analysis of Negative Game Changers Emerging in Real Estate

45-90 Minutes | USA or Canada | Q&A Added

When things are going well it's often hard to imagine it being any other way. The goal of the DANGER Report is to provide real estate leaders and professionals with a comprehensive and objective analysis of the most significant dangers and risks that could possibly impact the real estate industry. The dangers covered in the presentation are not predictions; they are potential threats facing real estate brokers and agents today.

As the goal of the DANGER Report is to provide the residential Real Estate Industry with a comprehensive and objective analysis of the most significant threats, risks, and black swans that could possibly impact the industry, Stefan's presentation dives into an overview of either the U.S. Danger Report, Canada Danger report, or can dive into some of the sections. He showcases some of the most important findings of the report and interesting challenges in the industry that the report has brought to light.
